Spice Spoons

Delve into the heritage of two distinctive cuisines with our Arabic and Thai culinary journeys. Richly interactive, the experience begins with a local market tour in the Nizwa souk. Back at the resort, enjoy a private tour of the chef's garden, before a step by step cooking class. Pick up secret tips as you learn how to cook authentic recipes. Savour your creations for lunch and take home new skills to impress friends and family back home.

Itinerary

7.00 am Meet our Master Chef in the lobby before heading to Nizwa Souk with a continental breakfast lunchbox.

8.30 am Upon arrival at Nizwa Souk, our Master Chef will explain all the different flavours of authentic Omani and Thai cooking and share the secrets of selecting the best spices. You will also learn about the other ingredients in the dishes you will be preparing in the cooking class and how to choose the best quality.

9:30 am Depart from Nizwa Souk back to the resort.

10.30 am Once you have returned to the resort, you'll head to our Chefs garden with the Master Chef where you will learn about the various ingredients you will be using to create your dishes.

3.00 pm Assemble in Al Maisan Restaurant where you will be talked through the dishes you are about to cook and the techniques you will use. Then it's your turn to put theory into practice in a step-by-step cooking class, preparing a 2 course mouth-watering meal using the ingredients you personally selected from the souk and chef's garden.

5.00 pm Relax after your efforts over lunch and taste the exquisite dishes you have prepared.

OMR 65.000 per person, inclusive of soft drinks, as well as a souvenir Spice Spoons cooking apron, recipe book, chopping board and shopping bag and, if you impress the Master Chef with your final dishes, a certificate of achievement.

The Spice Spoons cooking classes run daily. Classes are limited to a minimum of 2 guests, and up to a maximum of 3 guests.

To book, please contact Guest Services 24 hours in advance.
