

24 DECEMBER 2016 - CHRISTMAS EVE

Jungle Bells Cocktails & Gala Dinner

Craving eggnog or mulled wine? You're invited to this warm, festive gathering, kicked off with a colourful dance performance from an Akha hill tribe family. The serene setting of our hilltop is the backdrop to begin this auspicious evening.

When your belly rumbles, join us poolside for a lavish roast turkey and lamb buffet, accented with Fin De Clare oyster, Australian tenderloin, charcoal grill, homemade duck terrine, eight types of home baked breads, ample Thai offerings and a dessert section that just might put you onto Santa's 'naughty' list. Premium wines enhance the evening's libations while listening to the festive tunes from the live band.

We've also made a special arrangement with the North Pole to host Santa before he begins his international present tour! Accompanied by carolers, he's swinging by with presents.
